FROM THE MANAGER.....

Today we welcome Winslow United to The Boss Plumbing Stadium – We wish them safe travel to and from today's venue.

Having come up against Winslow three times last season, we are familiar with the style of play as well as the players and management.

Credit has to be given for winning promotion last season via the play offs – having lost out in the final game of the season it takes a lot to get off the floor & go again as history shows us.

They seem to have adapted well to life at Step 4 as well currently sitting 9th in the division.

Our last home game would see us share the points with Royston Town FC – I felt at the time we done enough to win the game with the chances we had and having looked back at the VEO that proved to be the case.

Coming back from a losing position, it was great play from Nick Ralfe to get us level and the old saying goes 'if you can't win, don't lose' so we took the point the moved on.

Saturday was the trip to Flackwell Heath FC – a new ground for me as I've never managed a side over there.

From a performance point of view we as a team were not good enough on the day – we looked off it for some reason and have since spoken about that as a group.

One thing I will credit the side with though is heart and balls. Going into the last five minutes 2 -1 down, we turned the game on its head, coming away 3-2 winners!

Goals from Nick Ralfe, Ethan Rookard & Tyreece Robertson got us the 3 points & kept the good form going in the league. (cont..)

Tuesday night was a home fixture in the Herts FA Senior Challenge Cup against Watford based Everett Rovers FC.

We moved the side around to get some minutes into the legs of lads that haven't features or coming back from injury and a chance for some to be rested.

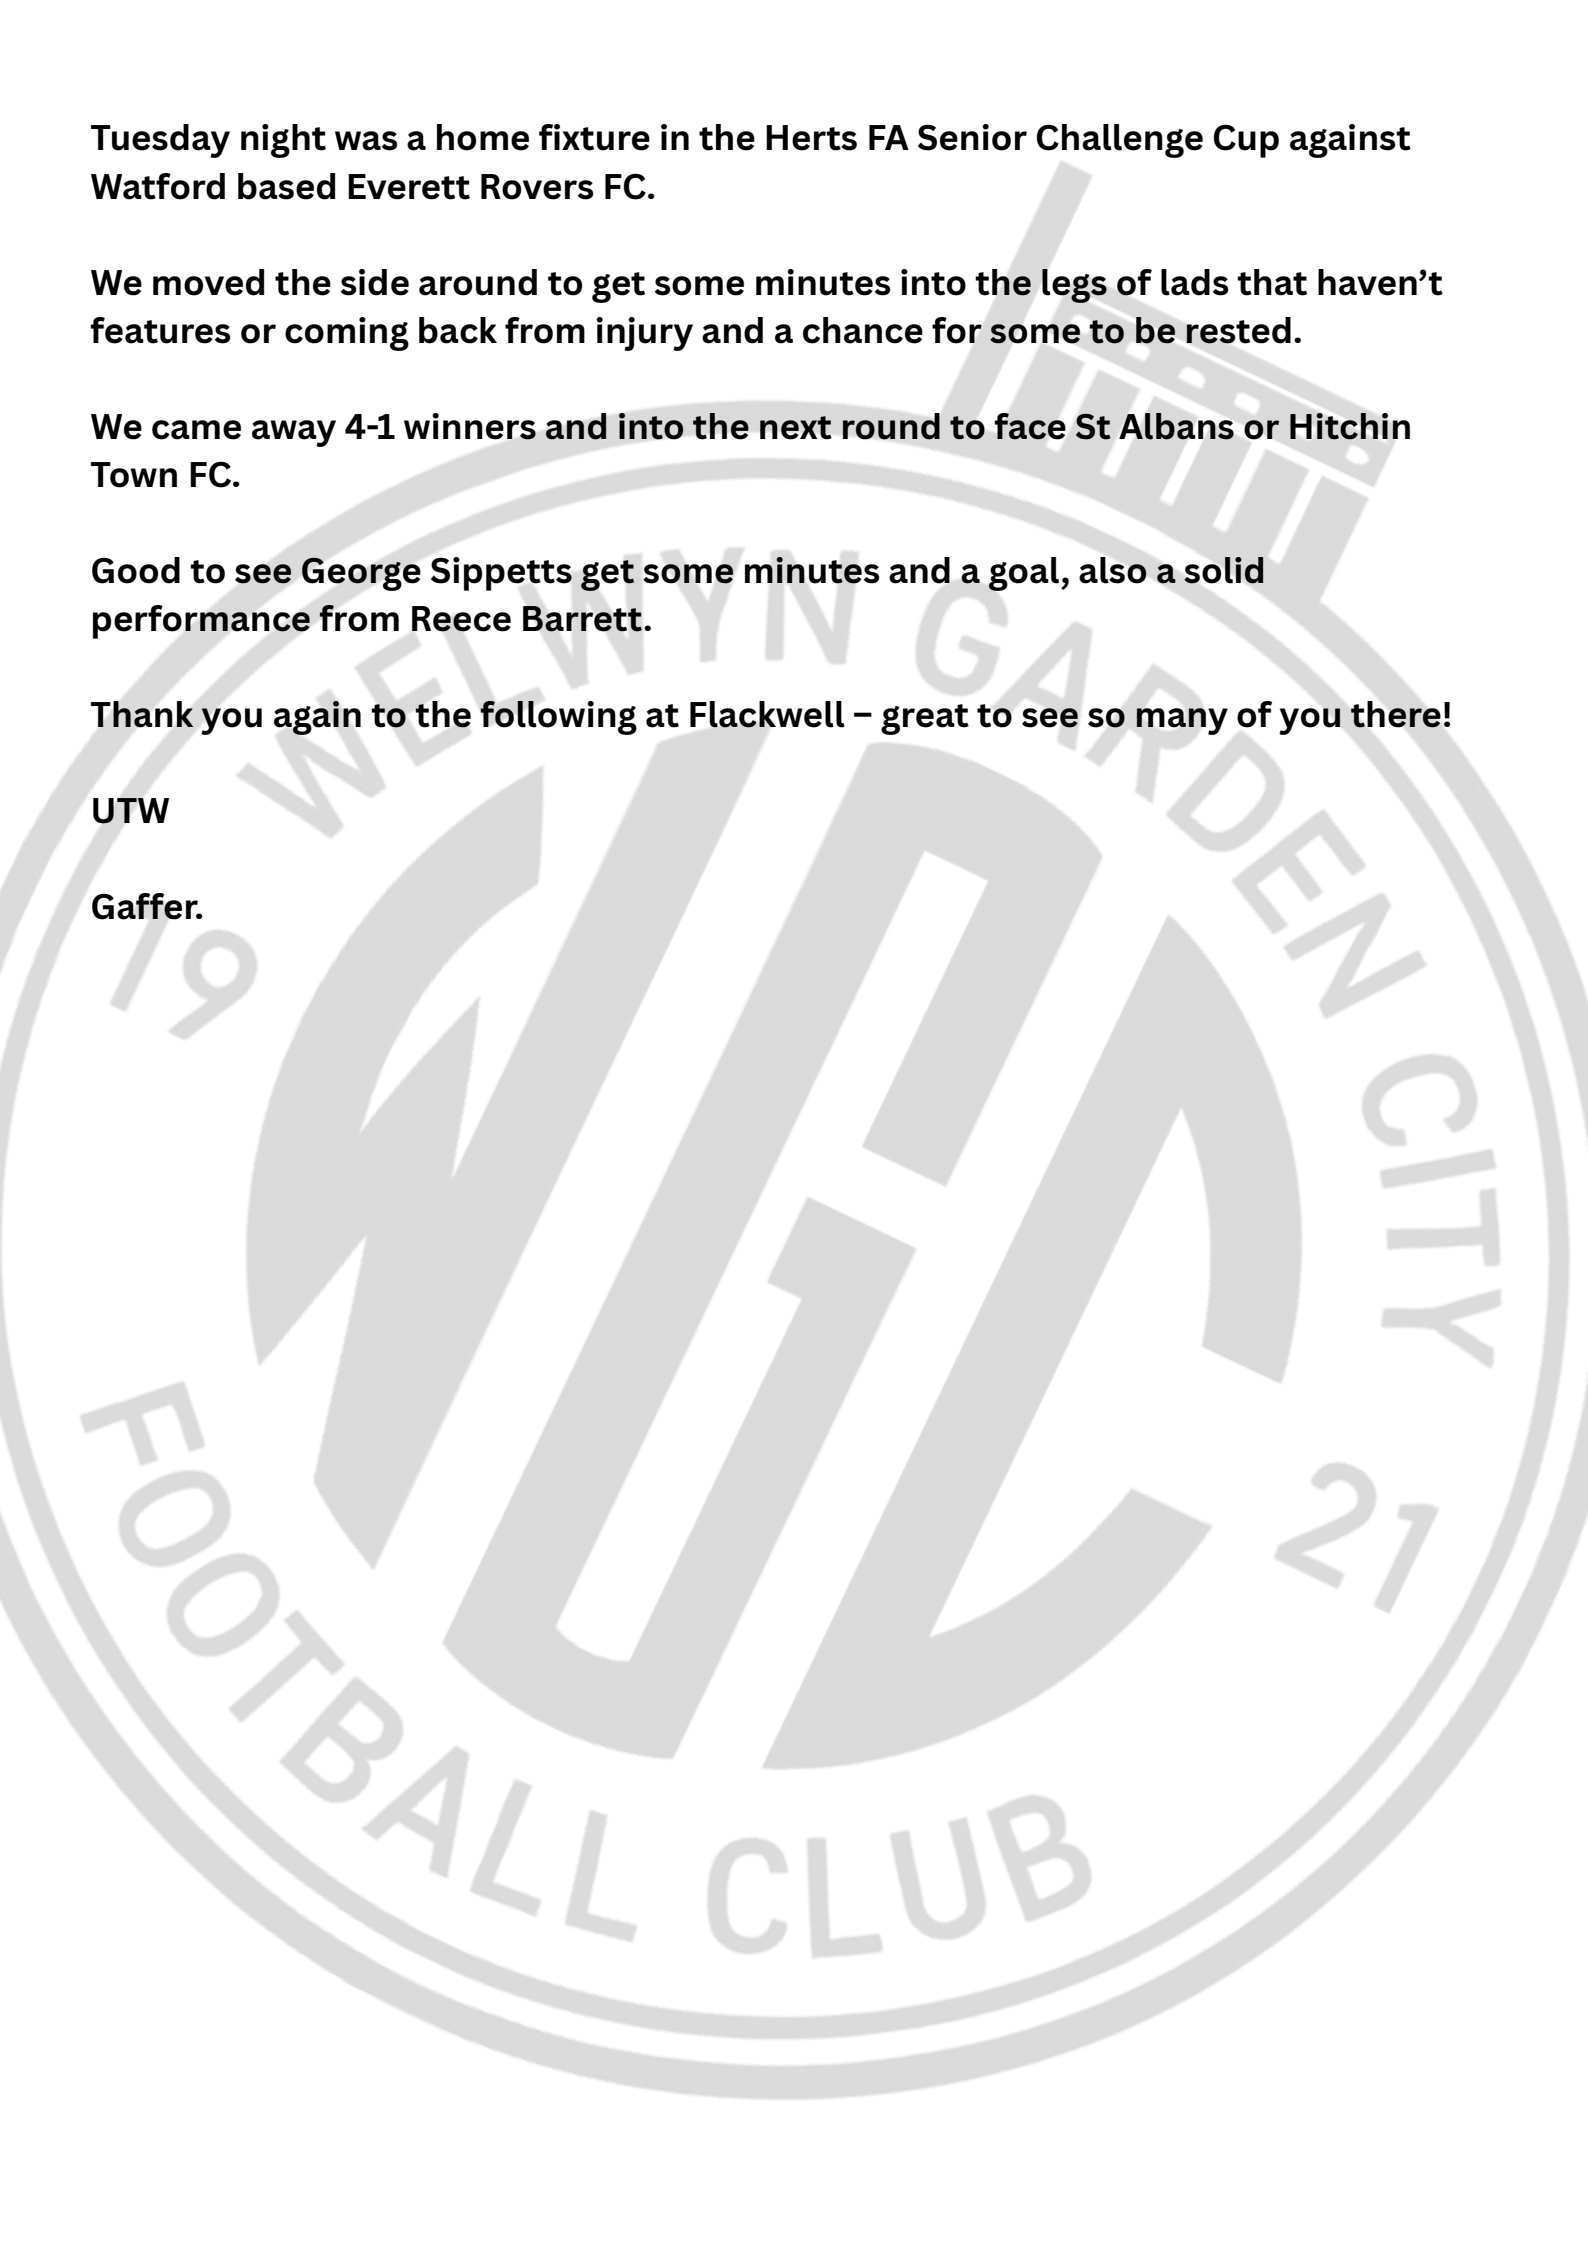

We came away 4-1 winners and into the next round to face St Albans or Hitchin Town FC.

Good to see George Sippetts get some minutes and a goal, also a solid performance from Reece Barrett.

Thank you again to the following at Flackwell – great to see so many of you there!

WELWYN GARDEN CITY 4-1 EVERETT ROVERS

WELWYN GC breezed into the second round of the Herts Senior Cup, where they will meet the winners of next week's tie between St Albans or Hitchin, away from Hens Way.

The Citizens accounted for newly promoted Watford side Everett Rovers of the SSML in this first round tie, despite fielding an understrength side.

Manager Gavin Kelsey opted to give regulars Eddie Corbit, Keiron Gauthier, Tyreece Robertson and Junior Moses the night off, while he had other regular starters Ethan Rookard, Nick Ralfe, Ryan Hayes and Malik Nosike on the bench.

He was pleased to welcome back skipper Jay Lovell to the centre of defence, after a fortnight out with hamstring trouble.

WGC's evening got off to a bad start, when they had to substitute Luca Gordon within two minutes, the recalled midfielder suffering a recurrence of an old ankle injury. Ralfe replaced him.

There was further trouble for the Hens Way side, when Everett took the lead in seven minutes.

A misplaced clearing header sent their winger Max Drayton haring down the left. He outpaced Egan Ntege and as keeper Connor Sansom, advanced, he slipped his effort into the far corner for a great early boost for the Watford side.

It took WGC some time to get to grips with the game, but after 20 minutes they came within an ace of equalising, Kendall Gyamfi cutting inside his defender to strike the foot of the Everett post with his effort.

Moments later WGC were level. A fine Frankie Impey long ball put Reece Mosanya down the right. He outpaced his defender and cut the ball back and Reece Barrett finished from close in, for 1-1.

Six minutes from the break, WGC were in front. It came from a long Lovell throw on the left and Impey jumped highest to get in a looping header that beat the Everett keeper, although the last touch appeared to be off a visiting defender.

The Watford side weren't out of the tie and in the opening minutes of the second-half, Louis Bircham and Jay Puzey cleverly switched passes to put Puzey in to hit the WGC post with his effort.

The Citizens responded with Luis Cantello bursting forward from their midfield, to hit a powerful 25 yarder that was inches wide.

Just before the hour, skipper Lovell was replaced by Nosike with Cantello dropping into the backline, where he played very impressively for the final half-hour.

WGC pressed for a clinching third. A fine through ball from Brad Dixon-Smith put Evaristo Mendes in, but Everett keeper Rashid pushed the effort around the post. Then fine work by Gyamfi played Mosanya in on goal, but the winger took it too close and the chance was lost.

Then on 68 minutes, WGC stretched away to a 3-1 lead. A fine ball from Cantello sent Ralfe away down the left, he sent up Mendes, who was hauled down in the box. Referee Poole immediately pointed to the spot and Mendes took the kick himself to net the third.

WGC made further changes for the final 10 minutes, including giving close season signing George Sippetts his first minutes in a WGC shirt, after a lengthy injury.

And he made his mark. In the game's final minute, the striker neatly intercepted a misplaced pass and homed in on goal, also to be pulled down.

Again referee Poole was in no doubt about the penalty and Sippetts took responsibility to net his first WGC goal, with an emphatic penalty, in the game's last action.

WGC: Sansom, Ntege, Impey, Lovell (Nosike 56), Dixon-Smith, Cantello, Barrett (Hayes 80), Mendes (Sippetts 80), Gordon (Ralfe 2), Gyamfi, Mosanya.

Levi Nicholson: Quick and direct winger who featured for AFC Dunstable last season. Impressed since coming to the club and scorer of a spectacular strike at Leighton Town in pre-season.

Abdullah Jellal: Made his senior Debut for Aylesbury Vale Dynamos in August 2023; joined Aylesbury United from whom he joined Winslow in September 2026. Plays in midfield and was a favourite with the Ducks fans.

Toby Herdman-Smith: Last season's top scorer for our Reserve side. Has impressed whenever called up to the 1st team and has a habit of grabbing late goals.
