WELCOME TO WELWYN GARDEN CITY FC

HOME OF THE CITIZENS

Good evening and welcome back to Hens Way for our league clash with London Lions. We welcome everyone from London Lions to Welwyn Garden City and we hope you enjoy your evening with us.

We come back for another home game on the back of a defeat at the hands of Winslow United. For those of you who were here on Saturday it really was one of those days. Winslow's first goal was a freak with the defender scoring from his own half and we hit the woodwork twice and missed some decent chances while chasing an equaliser. We deserved at least a draw but these games happen sometimes in football and tonight is a great chance to get back to winning ways with games coming thick and fast.

After 9 games we are 5th in the league with 17 points so a win tonight will keep us up there in the playoff positions before a tough away on Saturday at Thame United. So far in October we have played 2 games with 5 more to come in the month. In November we have 6 games arranged. It's a lot of games which will test the squad so the lads need you and your great support more than ever.

Eddie Corbit will be presented with the player of the month award for September before tonight's game. Eddie is having a great season so far and his award for September is well deserved.

Enjoy the game

David Coates

FROM THE MANAGER.....

Tonight we welcome London Lions to The Boss Plumbing Stadium for this Southern Division One Central fixture.

A fairly local trip up the A1 to which we wish all associated with Lions a safe passage.

The league is starting to take shape now with most clubs having played between 8-10 games – Didcot Town with an outstanding start to top the league closely followed by Potters Bar and Biggleswade.

We sit in 5th position having lost at home to Winslow Utd on Saturday.

I felt we let one slip there having taken the lead from Ethan Rookard & dominating the opening 20 minutes – but as we know in football it's a funny old game and a Jason Cundy style tackle from around the half way line ended up in our net to level things up.

I feel that set us back a bit and the game was more open. We had the chances but didn't take advantage of them and Winslow got the winner and took all 3 points.

We need to bounce back tonight but Lions are a good footballing side and will prove tough opponents – as much noise as possible please!

UTW!

Gaffer.

WELWYN GARDEN CITY 1-2 WINSLOW UNITED

WGC manager Gavin Kelsey must be beginning to dislike playing Winslow United.

Last season, the Bucks side beat Kelsey's Cockfosters team in the SSML play-off final, to reach the Southern League for the first time.

Here, they plundered three points from Kelsey's new charges – Welwyn GC – to inflict a rare defeat on the Citizens in their good start to the campaign. Winslow, themselves, have made a strong start to step 4 football, like WGC going into this game with only one league defeat.

They owed their victory here to a sensational fluke equaliser just past the half-hour mark, when defender Charlie Attwell hit a giant clearance to get the ball away from WGC's Ethan Rookard, from well into his own half.

They ball travelled over everyone in the other half and straight down the middle of the pitch, to bounce over home keeper Connor Sansom for an amazing equaliser to make it 1-1.

WGC had led themselves with a fortunate opening goal in 19 minutes, a right-wing corner deflecting into the net off Rookard's shoulder for 1-0.

The Winslow leveller, coming in such sensational style, seemed to knock WGC out of their stride, having been the better side for the opening stages. Malik Nosike had their first effort in eight minutes, safely pouched by Winslow's impressive keeper Jake Stronge and then two minutes later, it was Nosike again who had the best home chance.

A fine WGC move which saw Rookard find Luis Cantello, who made good progress down the right then cut the ball back for Nosike, in space, but he saw his rising effort hit the Winslow crossbar.

WGC created few clearcut chances after the interval, in a poorish second-half showing, although the result might have been different had Eddie Corbit scored and not hit the visitors' crossbar again on 63 minutes.

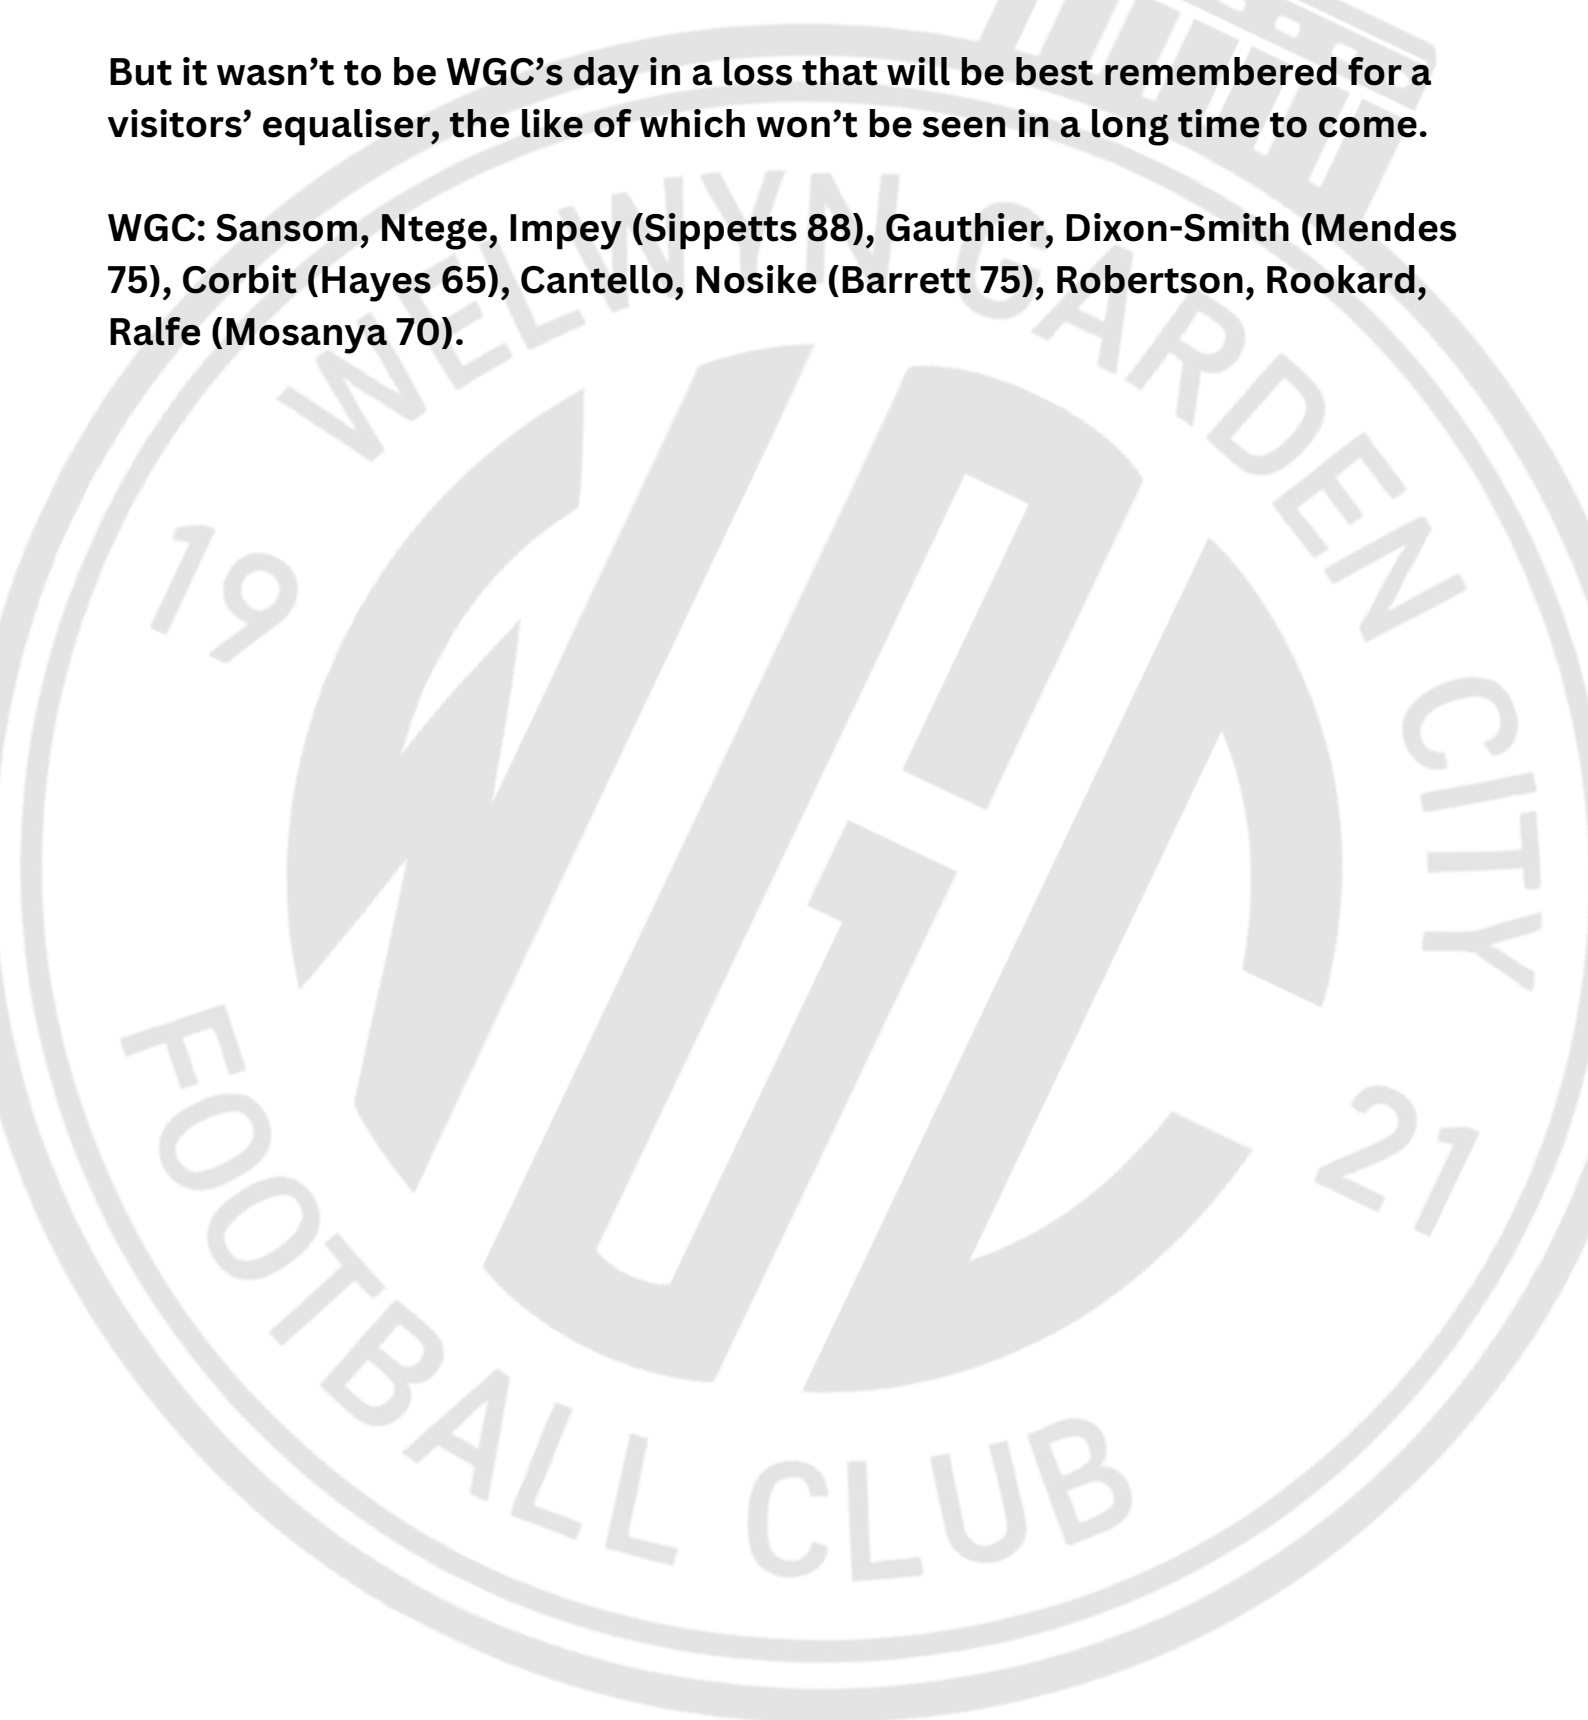

CONT....

The points were decided when Winslow staged a quick break down the right with 18 minutes to go. The ball was fed inside for substitute Levi Nicholson to fire past Sansom for 2-1.

WGC tried to lay siege to the visitors' goal in the closing minutes, Winslow keeper Stronge pulling off one fine save to thwart Rookard.

But it wasn't to be WGC's day in a loss that will be best remembered for a visitors' equaliser, the like of which won't be seen in a long time to come.

WGC: Sansom, Ntege, Impey (Sippetts 88), Gauthier, Dixon-Smith (Mendes 75), Corbit (Hayes 65), Cantello, Nosike (Barrett 75), Robertson, Rookard, Ralfe (Mosanya 70).

LONDON LIONS CLUB HISTORY

Back in 1995, a group of ambitious players and officials from Maccabi Association London decided Sunday League football wasn't enough. They joined the Hertfordshire Senior County League, rebranded as MALEX, and kicked off their new chapter in the 1995/96 season.

Promotion proved tricky at first, with four near misses. In 1999, the club pressed reset again, this time emerging as London Maccabi Lions. Under Bobby Fisher and Adam Solomons, the team lost just three league games, won Division One, and reached the Aubrey Cup semi-finals.

By 2002, the Reserves were champions and making regular appearances in the county cup finals. In 2007, the first team lifted their first major trophy, beating Metropolitan Police to claim the Herts Centenary Trophy.

Things picked up speed. In 2009/10, led by Tony Gold and Steve Grenfell, the Lions won the Herts Senior County League and were promoted to the Spartan South Midlands League. The following year brought another Centenary Trophy win. In 2012/13, they secured the Division One title and their first ever FA Cup win with a 4-0 victory over Clapton.

But progress came with challenges. In 2013/14, the club suffered its first relegation. They regrouped and returned to the Herts League in 2015/16. Manager Andy Landesberg led a talented young squad to instant success, winning the Anagram Records Trophy.

What followed was a dream season. The Lions pulled off a treble, winning the league title, the Centenary Trophy, and their first Aubrey Cup. Back in the Spartan South Midlands League, the silverware kept coming. They added the Division One Cup in 2018, another Centenary Trophy in 2019, the Spring Cup in 2021, and earned promotion to the Premier Division.

In 2025, the Lions made club history. They beat Wormley Rovers in the playoff final to secure their first ever promotion to Step 4, entering the Pitching In Southern League, Central Division One.
